

Transport Scotland operates the Scotland-Wide Free Bus Travel for older and disabled people scheme.
Anyone with epilepsy who has had a seizure within the past 12 months and:

- does not hold a current driving licence (licence revoked or surrendered on medical grounds)

OR

- has never had a driving licence

AND

- would be refused a driving licence on medical grounds if they applied for one
- may be eligible to apply.

If you would like to apply for a National Entitlement Card to access free bus travel, please fill in section A of this form and ask your Hospital Consultant, Epilepsy Specialist Nurse or GP to fill in section B (overleaf). Once the form is completed, take it in person to your local authority or local concessionary travel office.

Please note: This form needs to be submitted with proof of address.

Section A (to be completed by applicant)

Name (Mr / Mrs / Miss / Ms / Other).....

Address.....
.....

Postcode..... Date of birth.....

Declaration: I do not currently hold a driving licence and I am not banned from driving. If I am given a National Entitlement Card and then apply for and receive a driving licence I will notify my local authority / local concessionary travel office immediately and give up my right to free bus travel across Scotland. If I have given false information on this form my entitlement to free bus travel will be taken away.

Signature..... Date.....

FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY

Section B (to be completed by the applicant's Hospital Consultant, Epilepsy Specialist Nurse or GP)

Applicant name -Date of birth.....

Please read the statements below and sign the declaration if you agree with ALL THREE statements. Please also ensure that the certificate is stamped before you return it to the applicant. Do not complete if the applicant does not meet all of the criteria below.

I confirm the following:

- The applicant named overleaf has epilepsy and receives regular treatment.

AND

- The applicant named overleaf has had a seizure in the past 12 months.

AND

- If the applicant named overleaf were to apply for a licence to drive a motor vehicle under Part 3 of the Road Traffic Act 1988, they would have their licence application refused in accordance with section 92 of that Act (physical fitness) but not on the grounds of persistent misuse of drugs or alcohol.
